In Memory of
Mabel Scoggin Duncan

Senator Aikin offered the following resolution:

(Senate Resolution 153)

Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom, has called from these earthly labors Mrs. Mabel Scoggin Duncan of Paris, Texas; and

Whereas, Mrs. Duncan was born in Milford, Iowa, educated at the Preparatory School of Boulder, Colorado, the Normal School at Madison, South Dakota, and the University of Boulder where she received a B.S. Degree. She came to Texas in 1912; and

Whereas, She was known as the guardian angel of the needy, having devoted her life, career and hobby, to welfare and helping "her" people. She retired from the State Department of Public Welfare in 1958, after serving with that department for 27 years, being one of the most dedicated and capable of State employees, but continued her work with the less fortunate as administrator of the King's Daughters program for the needy in Paris. In addition, she handled all interviews for the Lamar County Society for Crippled Children; and

Whereas, Her outlook was always bright, despite the years of seeing the poor and destitute, and sometimes helpless and friendless, come in day after day, and seemed to grow brighter as she continued to serve. Her greatest joy was to meet the people who were rehabilitated, and to know that her helping hand had been the thing they needed; and

Whereas, She is survived by two nieces, whom she assisted in rearing, Mrs. Tom Wiegel of Austin and Mrs. William B. Vaughan of San Angelo; and

Whereas, The Senate desires to pay tribute to the memory of this worthy citizen, known and loved by thousands; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be mailed to members of her family expressing our deep sympathy, and that a page in the Senate Journal be set aside in her memory.

The resolution was read and was adopted by a rising vote of the Senate.
